OVER THE NEXT 10 YEARS

Jackie Meck

Dear Friends,

Canopy is blessed with a bold, visionary think tank – our Board of Directors. For 105 years, the governing body of this organization has advanced our mission through measured and decisive course setting. Last March, the board gathered for an annual retreat to consider the stewardship responsibility Canopy has for the children and families of Mississippi. Three important outcomes emerged.

First, a 10-year vision statement was affirmed – "As the premier behavioral health provider for children and families, Canopy is the go-to source for innovative solutions that transform lives." This is in no way a prideful statement, but rather a statement birthed out of a deep sense of obligation to provide solutions to the vexing problems facing our state.

A second important outcome was affirming our commitment to integrated health. It is time to end the artificial separation of "physical" and "mental" health and talk about "healthy children and families." The proper optics to view headline issues such as graduation rates, teen suicide, substance abuse, obesity, bullying and teen pregnancy is through an integrated health lens. We need to stop viewing these issues in silos and addressing them one by one as if they are not integrally related. In the years to follow, Canopy is committed to help reshape these discussions with key private and public stakeholders.

The third outcome was to affirm our current strategic priority – what is most important right now. Our collective priority centers on creating innovative solutions for those diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder (ASD). We are honored to provide educational solutions for children and youth with ASD (in Gulfport, Hattiesburg, and Jackson) as well as an early intervention clinic (for those 18 months to 8 years) in Madison.

Now, we are committed to leverage the full might of our organization to make a dent in the world of autism in Mississippi. Partners such as the Gertrude C. Ford Foundation, the Ware Foundation, and many other key community stakeholders have joined arms with Canopy to create a blueprint for excellence. To that end, we have hired the state's leading expert in the field and have begun working with renowned global leaders in the field to create a Mississippi model of excellence. We are also partnering with our institutions of higher learning to address the workforce crisis facing all providers. Over the months and years to follow, we will move to hire top talent, secure the ideal physical plant space, empower advocacy efforts for our families, and align strong partnerships with key local, state, national and global stakeholders to create something very special for the children and families of Mississippi.

We believe every child can be a success story and that belief becomes a reality when compassionate people partner to achieve something together they could never achieve on their own. Thank you for your commitment to help children thrive! Thank you for your trust over this past century of service and thank you in advance for your support as we provide solutions for the decades ahead. We are honored to partner with you to transform lives!

CARES Schools are accredited, non-public schools designed to meet the educational and behavioral needs of students whose behavior prohibits enrollment in a public school setting. The goal of CARES School is for each student to live and learn effectively. Our CARES Schools have dedicated classrooms for children on the autism spectrum.

CARES Schools provide quality, individualized instruction that meets the needs of each student. While attending CARES School, the child learns social, life, and leisure skills to maximize their academic achievement. With small class sizes of eight to ten students, students receive personal attention so they can attain their best. Each classroom is equipped with a licensed teacher and a behavioral therapist. With a multi-disciplinary strengths-based approach, each student participates on a child and family team to coordinate academic and behavioral health support. (Hattiesburg, Jackson)

"Working at Canopy is rewarding because you witness children and families go through transformations. While devastating to hear their traumatic stories, it is gratifying to know you played a role in bringing the children out of dark, scary places. The impact we provide gives our families hope to carry with them beyond their time with us."

“Brown bear, brown bear,
what do you see?”

“I see two friends
reading about me.”

In 2015, Jacob began treatment at Canopy after being diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder at age two. A loving, affectionate child, Jacob was non-verbal. Before coming to Canopy, he couldn't verbalize a single word or he communicated with hand motions to indicate his need.

Jacob began intensive applied behavioral analysis therapy through Canopy's Autism Clinic. In a few short months, his family was amazed at the progress he was making.

This spring, Jacob and his friend Ava, another child on the spectrum, sat together at the clinic reading Eric Carle's book Brown Bear Brown Bear. The children worked cooperatively with one another to read the book.

That evening, Jacob told his parents about his play date. His mom listened in amazement at Jacob's progress thanks to the therapy he received at Canopy's Autism Clinic. In that moment, her heart was filled with gratitude and hope knowing that her child's future had been transformed.

Annual Wine Tasting and Silent Auction

Each spring, Canopy's Auxiliary organizes a beautiful night that includes wine, food from local restaurants, live music and a silent auction.

Children's Mental Health Summit

In May, mental health advocates attended the annual Mississippi Children's Mental Health Summit hosted by First Lady Deborah Bryant. Participants learned about mental health issues from national and regional presenters.

Vines of the World

In September, the Advisory Board of Canopy's South Mississippi Children's Center (SMCC) hosts Vines of the World Wine Tasting and Auction, which benefits children in crisis and raises awareness of SMCC.

Canopy's Annual Celebration

Annually, Canopy stakeholders celebrate the year's accomplishments. During the event, Chrysalis Awards are given to community leaders committed to transforming the lives of children in Mississippi. In 2016, Canopy's Chrysalis Awards were presented to the Southern Farm Bureau Life Insurance Company, the Ware Foundation, Lifeshare Foundation and MS Supreme Court Justice Dawn Beam. First Lady Deborah Bryant presented the awards.

Thank you to our Community Partners and Partners in Transformation who believe in Canopy's mission. Through their support, Canopy is able to champion the cause of caring for Mississippi's children and families.

AUXILIARY, ADVISORY BOARDS & VOLUNTEERS

We are grateful to many individuals and organizations who give their time to enhance the lives of the children at Canopy. Volunteers enrich programs by providing fun and engaging activities. Their heart-felt encouragement and kind smiles have a tremendous impact in helping these children learn love and compassion for themselves and others.

"I've never seen more smiles and more happiness than I did at Canopy. Each child that I talked to, had a dance party with or chased on the playground left their mark on me. Every time that I walked out I was different than when I came in. I am thankful for the amazing experiences I had."

"In 1962, my parents were hopeful that their dreams of adopting a child would come true. How excited they were to receive a call from Mississippi Children's Home one morning. Little did they know, by that afternoon, they would be the proud parents of twin boys.

Did that day change the world? Not really, but it did change the lives of two adults and two children. Fifty-five years later, the need to change the lives of children and families for the better still exists and Canopy Children's Solutions is there to address that need. Having been on the receiving end in 1962, it is a pleasure to partner with Canopy to help change the lives of the next generation in Mississippi."

"Robert Frost's poem 'The Road Not Taken' came to the forefront of my mind this year when deciding what to give my mother for Christmas. With my 50th birthday quickly approaching, making a donation in her honor to the Mississippi Children's Home Society seemed the most appropriate. For me, this poem brings birthday and Christmas together.

One day, almost fifty years ago a young woman took the less traveled road, and that has made all the difference to me. A family took me and loved me as if I was their own, never indicating I had not been born to them, and encouraging me to be 'me.' Had they not, I would not have the blessing of having her in my life.

So, this donation is a thank you to them and hopefully an encouragement to another who may be in a position to choose what path to go down. I love you all."

This list reflects gifts made between January 1 and December 31, 2016. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy.

Canopy has been empowered to help every child to reach their full potential for more than a century with the help of loyal volunteers, corporate sponsors, community leaders and compassionate philanthropists. If you want to make a difference in a child's life, we have many opportunities available.

HELP CANOPY TRANSFORM LIVES

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Monetary, stock, planned giving and memorial contributions are ways to support the areas of greatest financial need to help us transform lives. Canopy has an exemplary record of responsible stewardship with 93% of all financial donations directly supporting our statewide programs.

CORPORATE OR INDIVIDUAL SPONSORSHIPS

Becoming a Partner in Transformation or Community Partner highlights your dedication to helping children thrive. There are multiple levels of individual and corporate sponsorships. To show our appreciation of our partnerships, we promote partnerships and volunteer activities through numerous social media platforms, our website and agency newsletters, at all agency-sponsored events, in addition to visual and printed collateral materials.

CHARITABLE REWARDS GIVING

By designating Canopy as your charity of choice, you can support our work to help kids overcome extraordinary challenges. Canopy currently participates in community rewards giving through AmazonSmile, Kroger Community Rewards and Rite Aid KidCents.

VOLUNTEER

Canopy has 19 locations across the state, many of which offer opportunities for individuals and groups to get involved. We welcome individuals with talents they would like to share. Volunteer opportunities may include participating in events for residential and school children, lending a hand for a work day at one of our facilities, preparing for an agency event, entertaining foster children during support meetings, tutoring, or reading to the children.

CANOPY AUXILIARY

Canopy's Auxiliary has been a staple of the agency since the early 1920s. The Auxiliary helps support the needs of children in our different programs in Jackson. In addition, they also plan Canopy's annual Wine Tasting & Silent Auction.

NEEDS DRIVES

We encourage individuals or groups to host needs drives to support our children and families throughout the year. Donations remain within the local community from which they are collected.

Needs drives can include:

- ◆ Bedding and Blankets
- ◆ Halloween Costumes
- ◆ Luggage, Duffle Bags, Backpacks
- ◆ Prom Attire
- ◆ Recreation Equipment
- ◆ School and Art Supplies
- ◆ Toiletries
- ◆ Toys and Books
- ◆ Winter Clothing and Socks

To get involved or learn more about specific ways you can help, please visit us online at mycanopy.org or contact Traci Grubb at 601-352-7784 or by email at traci.grubb@mycanopy.org.
